

DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL HEALTH NURSING

REPORT ON "MEDICAL CAMP"(19.01.2022)

Vinayaka Mission's College of Nursing, Puducherry, Department of Mental Health Nursing in Collaboration with AVMC&H conducted the "Medical Camp" on 19.01.2022 at 9.00 am in Pushpagandhi Old age Home, Korkadu, Puducherry. Dr. Kevin, Dr. Dushyanth, Dr. Kaviarasan, Ms. Pragathi, Ms. Malavika, Ms. Sivaranjini, Ms. Sathya, and Ms. Pushpagantha were the medical team members. The medical camp began with the self introduction of medical team members. Health check-up was started at 9.30 am. Doctors from General Medicine and Optometry examined the old age people. On examination out of 13 old age people, 5 were diabetic, 4 were hypertensive and remaining 4 with ortho problems. According to their diagnosis, physiotherapy and medications were given. Three of them were referred to AVMC&H for further investigation and management. Followed that Mr. Radhakrishnan, Nursing tutor, VMCON, delivered the Health Talk on "Mental well-being". A total of 13 old age people have actively participated and got benefitted. Two faculties and 1 M.Sc Nursing student were involved in this camp.

Korkadu, Puducherry, India

Mariamman Koil St, Korkadu, Puducherry 605110, India

19/01/22 12:16 PM

19/01/22

ORGANIZING SECRETARY

[Handwritten signature]

PRINCIPAL
VINAYAKA MISSIONS COLLEGE OF NURSING,
KIRUMAMPAKKAM, PUDUCHERRY - 607 403.

PRINCIPAL