

VINAYAKA MISSION'S COLLEGE OF NURSING, PUDUCHERRY.
Kirumampakkam, Puducherry
Workshop on "Advancing Newborn Health – A Key to Survival" – 06.12.2017

REPORT OF THE WORKSHOP

The department of pediatric nursing, VMCON organized the 2nd state level workshop on 06.12.2017. The theme chosen for the workshop was Advancing newborn health – a key to survival. The scientific session started at 08.00 am. Prof. Rajalakshmi, HOD, Dept of OBG, SMVCON dealt with the top "Essentials of antenatal, perinatal & postnatal care". This was followed by Mrs. Sudha. B on "Identification of danger signs in the newborn". Then Prof. Latha Srikanth, Vice Principal, ICON, presented her topic on "Home based neonatal care".

After the scientific session the inaugural session was started at 10.30 am. Dr. Jeyagowri Subash was the chief guest and Dr. Ragupathy, HOD, Dept of Pediatrics was the special invitee welcome address was given by Mrs. Sudha. B and unfolding of the theme was done by Prof. V. Sasi. During the inaugural session the chief guest addressed the gathering and presented about overview of newborn (statistics, care components). Dr. Ragupathy in his special address highlighted on the importance of newborn care. Vote of thanks was proposed by Mrs. A. Samundeeswari. After the inaugural there was a tea break for 15 minutes. Then the skill stations were arranged and delegates were divided in 3 groups. The delegate rotated after completing each station. The morning session came to an end by 1.30 pm. Then the post lunch session started at 2.15 pm. Work stations followed.

Organizing secretary
(Mrs. Sudha. B)

PRINCIPAL
(Dr. G. Muthamilselvi)